Dear Friends,

Paul the apostle wrote to Timothy (II Timothy 3:1) and said, "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come." Perilous times means evil, dangerous, fierce, difficult, and violent times. Certainly we live in the last days. But, in these times let us come to Jesus for comfort and rest. Jesus said, in Matthew 11:28-30, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: And ye shall find rest unto your souls: for my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." Thank God, there is a rest in these troublous times. Hebrews 4:9 says, "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God." This speaks of a spiritual rest – we have peace with God; an emotional rest – a peace and rest for life today; and an eternal rest – eternal with our Lord in Heaven. So in these hard and difficult days, may we rest in the Lord and His word.

GRADUATE TESTIMONIES

BRANDON FONGER

I came to Teen Challenge addicted to drugs and alcohol and not knowing God in any way. My life was turned upside down. It took several months to realize that there was someone else other than myself in control. Once I accepted that, He changed my life forever. Blessed is that servant, whom his Lord when he cometh, shall find so doing. Luke 12:43

STEVE JASICK

Before Teen Challenge, I was a lost soul, held in the bondage of my sin which led me to being incarcerated most of my adult life. BUT GOD!! Through this year at Teen Challenge, God has delivered me and set me free. By the grace of God, I feel free for the first time in my life. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. Ephesians 2:8

JOSEPH SLEEPER

God brought me out of drugs, and now I am living for Him. He saved me through His son, Jesus, and forgave me for my sins. I thank Him for being in my life. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are children of God. Romans 8:16. Thank you Lord. I lift your name on high.

NATE DAVIS

For over 20 years, I let alcohol ruin my life. Because of my old life, I have been incarcerated many times, have suffered hardships, disappointed family and friends, and nearly died on multiple occasions. Because of the grace of God, I was saved from serving 12 years in prison and have been given yet another opportunity to live serving God, and showing His love to others. Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good deeds and glorify your father in Heaven. Matthew 5:16

I want to encourage all of you to stand fast in the faith. Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might. Remember, weeping may endure for the night, but joy cometh in the morning. May we, in these last days, win as many people to Christ as possible. We must work while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

Thanks to all of you who stand with us, here at Teen Challenge, with your prayers and giving. You are a blessing. We are praying for you and your families. He will never leave you, nor forsake you. We look forward to hearing from you. May God richly bless you.
